CARMEN BERRA NAMED HONORARY CHAIR FOR 2006 GOALS FOR LIFE SOCCER TOURNAMENT

Carmen Berra, who has volunteered with numerous local charity and educational organizations, has been named the Honorary Chair for the Sixth Annual Goals For Life Women's Charity Soccer Tournament. The Tournament will be held at Brookdale Park in Essex County on Saturday, June 10 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Goals For Life will donate proceeds from the Tournament to "In The Pink," the breast cancer education and outreach program run by St. Michael's Medical Center in Newark. Mrs. Berra has been an active supporter of "In The Pink."

Among the local groups that have benefited from Mrs. Berra's assistance are the Salvation Army, the Montclair Public Schools, the Montclair Art Museum, Turning Point and the Yogi Berra Museum & Learning Center.

A longtime Montclair resident, Mrs. Berra has been married to Yankee Hall of Famer Yogi Berra for 57 years. She has three sons, Dale, Tim and Larry, and is a grandmother of 10.

Since its inception in January 2001, Goals For Life, a Montclair-based, non-profit organization, has donated almost $100,000 to women's health initiatives. For additional information about Goals For Life, log on to www.goalsforlife.org or call 973.744.3003.
